About us

At Bechka Farm, authenticity begins at the source. From the fertile lands of Sfax, embraced by the sun of the Mediterranean Basin, we cultivate products that carry the soul of our land and the legacy of generations.

Our collection includes premium extra virgin olive oil, organic honey, sun-dried raisins, naturally dried figs, carob (kharoub), traditional almond (louz achek), and other carefully selected natural treasures. Each product is grown with respect for nature, harvested with care, and crafted to preserve its pure taste and authentic character.

Bechka Farm is more than a producer — it is a promise of origin, quality, and Mediterranean excellence. For international partners seeking premium, natural products with a true story behind them, we deliver authenticity you can taste and trust.

A glass bottle of extra virgin olive oil with a cork stopper and a handle, filled with golden-yellow oil. In the foreground, a wooden bowl is filled with fresh olives, some green and some ripening to a reddish-purple hue, with several green leaves interspersed among them. The background is a soft-focus landscape of rolling hills under a bright sky.
